On May 26, 2010, the Office of Personnel Management (OPM) partnered with the Senior Executives Association (SEA) and the Partnership for Public Service (PPS) to host an event where 115 individuals including expert consultants, experienced and newer Senior Executive Service (SES) members, and executive resources (ER) and training professionals gathered to discuss the importance of, and challenges to, onboarding Federal senior executives. During the event, experts presented their existing executive onboarding programs, and SES members shared their experiences and recommendations. Participants spent the second half of the day identifying components of an effective executive onboarding program. As a result of this collaborative effort, OPM has developed this manual as a tool to assist agencies in creating an executive onboarding program and a business case for it. This document contains the end product of this 1-day event: an executive onboarding framework with information on the steps that are critical to developing and implementing a successful formal executive onboarding program from pre-boarding through the first year. Executive onboarding refers to the acquiring, accommodating, assimilating and accelerating of new leaders into the organizational culture...
