La Follette The Committee on Privileges and Elections has before it the question of the petition of the Public Safety Commission of Minnesota for the expulsion of Senator Robert M. La Follette. It will be unnecessary to quote in this memorandum the entire speech of Senator La Follette. The whole speech should be read, because undoubtedly the tenor of the speech tends to throw light upon the intent with which certain statements, which are challenged, were uttered. Among other things the Senator, after stating that there was something wrong with our Government, said: There is something fundamentally wrong with it. [Cheers and applause.] Of course, of course, I know that the fellows who are waving the flags of to-day most frantically [laughter], the bloated representatives of wealth, who are shouting loudest for democracy to-day, are trying to invest this particular time with a new form of democracy [laughter, cheers, and applause.] A democracy that has attached to it as a cardinal principle not liberty, not equality, but profits. [Laughter, applause, and cheers.] And, my friends, you can not enlist the thinking, intellectual, conservative population found upon the farms of this section of the country, which was known when I was a boy as the old Northwest territory; you can not stir that population very deeply and very profoundly unless there is a profound reason for it. [Applause.] And that profound reason, if you will be a bit critical and a bit analytical, you will find is due to the fact that the very men who are shouting at the top of their voices about democracy to-day are the men who...
