

When the House Was Bright Pink (Paperback)

By Jacqueline Chan Valencic

Dog Ear Publishing, United States, 2007. Paperback. Book Condition: New. New.. 211 x 135 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .When the House was Bright Pink Welcome to a world where yo-yos and Hula Hoops, Jell-O and Kool-Aid, Father Knows Best, American Bandstand, drive-in theaters, and homecooked meals are the norm. Welcome to a time when e-mail and cell phones don't exist; when girls can't wear pants to school; when houses mustn't stay bright pink. This collection of short coming-of-age stories in verse travels to a 1950s, 1960s America, where the world seemed safer—at least in Mountain View, California. These stories, though reflecting a bygone era, speak to us in the present. For the need to be heard, to be seen, to be recognized are as perennial as the stars in the sky, as eternal as time flying by. These verses were written for grown-ups, but can be read by children twelve years and older. Read a poem a day, or a poem a week. Enjoy the illustrations. Enjoy. Follow a homely middle child's observations and struggles while growing up in a nine-member family. See how family provides the foundation...
