Excerpt: .and to erect the necessary edifices for schools, colleges and temples. The capital was to be $10,000.00 to be increased indefinitely. The funds of the corporation were to be the individual property of Chas. B. Thompson and he to be the manager and director of the business. Any person who wanted, whether a member of Jehovah s Presbytery or not, could contribute to the funds by gift oblations, tythings or sacrifices; but such donations can never return to donors nor were they to be entitled to any pecuniary remuneration therefor, but must abide the final issue of the Work of Jehovah s Presbytery of Zion for their reward. The other corporation, the House of Ephriam, was composed of members of Jehovah s Presbytery of Zion; its capital stock was $6,000.00 in shares of $5.00 each, which might be indefinitely increased, and certificates of stock...
