Not illustrated. 1871 Excerpt: .supplying more than most people have time or inclination to read. Compulsory attendance at school would, in many instances, reach those that the present law was intended to benefit, but who are either kept out of school to work, or allowed to wander about to engage in useless play or mischief. The State should compel their attendance at school, at least a part of the time. I am sorry to say that the great diversity of text-books, complained of for years, appears to be chronic, and is still getting worse in many schools. I intend and expect to remedy this evil, in part at least. I have made one hundred and thirty-five visits to the schools in my district within the year. In conclusion, I hereby express my thanks to the Department for the prompt and kind manner in which all my inquiries have been answered. T. G. SHAW, School Commissioner. Olmsteadville, Dec. 20th, 1870. FULTON COUNTY. Hon. Abram B. Weaver, Superintendent of Public Instruction: Sir.--In compliance with your request, I submit the following in addition to my financial and statistical reports. I entered upon the duties of this office January 1st, 1870. Owing to the lateness of the season and the condition of the roads, I was unable to visit all the schools during the winter term. Three schools I have not visited during the past year, as they were not in session when I reached them, yet I have made two hundred and forty-one...
