Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1913 edition. Excerpt: . . . a memorial panel on the auditorium wall of the West High School. The work is in the nature of a mural decoration done in oil on a canvas 10 by feet, and has for its main motif the following quotation from Daniel Webster: If we work upon marble it will perish; if we work upon brass time will efface it; if we rear temples they will crumble into dust; but if we work upon immortal minds, if we imbue them with principles with the just fear of God and love of their fellowmen, we engrave on those tablets something which will brighten to all eternity. The gift was unveiled with appropriate ceremonies on May 17, 1912. Minneapolis Chapter, of Minneapolis, has presented an appropriate settee to be placed in Loring Park near the tree and boulder given by the chapter some years before. The presentation took place on the anniversary of the dedication of Park Gateway. The chapter has held several open meetings during the year, with addresses on patriotic subjects. Monument Chapter, of Minneapolis, has purchased antiques for the State museum at the Sibley House. It has contributed 10 to the Berry School and arranged study program on the following subjects: Colonial architecture and furniture. Colonial kitchens. Colonial sewing and weaving. Matthew Hale Chapter, of St. Paul, has made gifts of antiques to the Sibley House museum, gave a paper on Washington at the Settlement House on February 22, and contributed 10 toward...
