Nick Renton's new dictionary of stock exchange and investment terms has been extensively revised and expanded and I am sure it will provide a useful reference for all those investors who want to demystify the jargon and understand the terminology - Maurice L Newman AC, Chairman, Australian Securities Exchange This dictionary and Almanac is an essential reference tool for stock and property investors at all levels, from beginners to professionals and from students to retired persons. It cuts through the jargon so often used by stockbrokers, estate agents, financial planners and the media.
