Charles Sumner, of Massachusetts: On the Cession of Russian America to the United States Mr. President: You have just listened to the reading of the treaty by which Russia cedes to the United States all her possessions on the North American continent in consideration of $7,200,000, to be paid by the United States. On the one side is the cession of a vast country with its jurisdiction and its resources of all kinds: on the other side is the purchase-money. Such is this transaction on its face. Boundaries And Configuration. In endeavoring to estimate its character I am glad to begin with what is clear and beyond question. I refer to the boundaries fixed by the treaty. Commencing at the parallel of 54 40 north latitude, so famous in our history, the line ascends Portland channel to the mountains, which it follows on their summits to the point of intersection with the 141 west longitude, which line it ascends to the Frozen ocean, or, if you please, to the north pole. This is...
