Ephesians 4: 12 calls leaders to be equipped to help those they lead discover their unique gifts and how to live out their God-given purpose. Jesus spent a great amount of time training others to go out and impact the world. That's what equipping is all about. Servant leadership is about pouring into those you lead and preparing them to serve where God has called. This six-session small group Bible study will help you as a leader become more effective by working to create a church culture where everyone is valued and serves according to their purpose. Leaders who participate in this study will: Understand their capacity for self-understanding Identify their personal mission Cultivate their ability to help others achieve ministry success Discover the six core competencies of leaders who help others live out God's story Leading Out is all about multiplying ministry by helping others live lives of meaning and purpose.
