RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 32 pages. LC Number: KF26 . F6 2003 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)53336630 Subject: AIDS (Disease) -- Uganda -- Prevention. Excerpt: . . . DS. I introduced a bill for that purpose last week. There are provisions for that purpose in the legislation that passed on Thursday night. Many Senators of both parties, the President himself, have all talked about this idea and I thought this might be a good time to gain some additional advice about how we could help an AIDS Corps work if one were to be formed. But before I introduce our first panelist, I would like to comment that the AIDS subject is not new to this committee or to this subcommittee. The former chairman of this subcommittee, Senator Frist, now the majority leader, spoke about AIDS early on and vigorously and I believe helped to persuade this administration to take a more active role. He was joined in that by his partner on this committee Senator Feingold from Wisconsin, who has also been an early and active advocate for AIDS, has been to Africa many times. I welcome Senator Feingold for his opening statement....
