

Credit management in selected mission hospitals in Kenya

By Barnabas Agar Onyango

LAP Lambert Academic Publishing Aug 2012, 2012. Taschenbuch. Book Condition: Neu. 220x150x6 mm. This item is printed on demand - Print on Demand Neuware - The study looks at the effectiveness of credit management in selected mission hospitals in Kenya. It looks the four credit management functions: Terms of credit, credit analysis, collection procedures and monitoring accounts receivables. Mission hospitals experienced very high levels of receivables making it difficult to operate. The study used the quantitative-descriptive research method of research. A pilot study was conducted to test the overall reliability and validity of the gathering tool. The research covered mission hospitals spread across Kenya to help determine the effectiveness of credit management. The study established that monitoring accounts receivable rates highest and need to be improved for better performance. Management of accounts receivable remains a big challenge to mission hospitals. The study found out that there is need to work closely with institute of credit management to help set guidelines for effective management. 92 pp. Englisch.

READ ONLINE
[7.03 MB]

Reviews

A really wonderful ebook with perfect and lucid answers. It is really interesting through looking at period of time. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

-- Gustave Moore

Most of these ebook is the perfect publication readily available. I really could comprehend almost everything out of this created e pdf. I discovered this pdf from my dad and i recommended this book to find out.

-- Vinnie Grant