Excerpt: . position without a cross. The great art is to learn to carry it bravely. It is a difficult lesson, but one learns it before the tabernacle, looking at Jesus, who has carried it before us. Do you not find it a consolation to think of the sorrows of Mary? I have taken the habit this last year of meditating on one of them for a quarter of an hour every day. I find it a source of many graces. Mary has suffered every sorrow. She can feel for us. Try to go to communion for me on the Feast of her Nativity, as I shall for you. I shall be so glad, my dear papa, to see a print of the Death of St. Joseph. I have taken special interest in that picture, as much for its own sake as on your account...
