The Luddites Guide to Technology

By C. J. S. Hayward

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback.

Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand.

Paperback. 240 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.6in. Tonight were going to party like its 19. 99. Or at least one headline read. The technologies we use, and the decisions we make about how we use them, have a lot in common with the global financial crisis. But decisions we make on a smaller scale add up, too! The title The Luddites Guide to Technology is quite deliberately ironic. The content, a work of Orthodox mystical theology, is not ironic, and is a discussion of spiritually disciplined use of todays technology. The discussion is meant to provide a roadmap and provoke reflection. Hes more machine now than man, twisted and evil. Thus the Star Wars movies have Obi-Wan Kenobi speak of Darth Vader. We are not cybernetic organisms with a half-robotic body like Darth

Vader, but there is a real sense in which we are more machine now than man, twisted and evil. Those people who spend much time with nature become nature-like people. Those people who spend much time with technology become technology-like people, and there are hints of this in how a teenager can...
